All Saints school: stability move

THE partnership between All Saints Primary School and Beer Primary School has been extended to provide "stability" until matters regarding a headteacher are resolved.

All Saints Primary School has been under temporary headship since November 2011.

Devon County Council (DCC) later announced Christine Hollidge had been suspended in June last year after being signed off from sick leave.

An inquiry was conducted and appeared to clear the way for her return.

Details of the inquiry has been kept secret by both sides, but all then governors resigned in September last year – and Mrs Hollidge has not returned to the school, which is led by acting headteacher Martin O'Mahoney, who is also headteacher of Beer Primary School.

In a letter to parents, chairman of governors Michelle Perryman wrote: "On Friday February 15th the management partnership between All Saints Primary and Beer Primary was due to expire.

"However, following a series of governor meetings a decision has been taken to extend the management partnership for up to a further term.

"This will give stability to the leadership of All Saints until matters relating to the absence of the substantive head are resolved."

Both DCC and Mrs Hollidge's union representative confirmed that a process to resolve the situation is ongoing.

Public meeting on hospital surgery

FEELINGS RUNNING HIGH OVER REDUCTION IN OPERATIONS

CAMPAIGNERS have confirmed there will be a public meeting to try and keep as much day case surgery as possible at Axminster Hospital.

The meeting will be held in the guildhall on Friday, March 1st, with a 7.30pm start.

It is hoped that MP Neil Parish, local GPs and rep-representatives of Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E) will accept invitations to attend.

Feelings are running high in the town and one councillor suggested taking to the streets to make the feelings heard.

Although not officially organised by Axminster Town Council, the public meeting has been arranged by a number of town councillors.

One of them, Mervyn Symes, said: "We have to make a strong representation. We don't know what we will retain and what we will lose."

Although an NHS facility, three different bodies are involved. The hospital is managed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, but day case surgery is commissioned by NHS Devon and provided by RD&E.

Local GPs fear that certain types of operations will be reduced or lost altogether.

They "deplored the withdrawal of services" but NHS Devon said no decision had been made – but confirmed the day case unit was deemed under-used and "therefore expensive to run" by the RD&E trust.

NHS Devon has also confirmed that an NHS locality board will meet on Wednesday, February 27th to make a decision on what day-case surgery will be commissioned to Axminster.

However, it is understood that the RD&E can reject whatever decision the locality board makes.

Dr Phil Taylor, a GP at Axminster Medical Practice, said: "The board meets on February 27th but its what the RD&E will agree to that counts."

■ JOHN JEFFERY – "we are being fed a load of cp"

In a way, this may be a good thing for campaigners as it gives them more time for lobbying.

As reported last week, the League of Friends of Axminster Hospital indicated it may be willing to subsidise day case surgery temporarily.

The league had not re-

Quotes of the week...

“ IF IT wasn't for the support of the community to keep this charity on the road we just wouldn't be here’

DON Lavery, founder of the Devon Freewheelers who deliver blood and organs to Devon hospitals after receiving a new motorcycle from Devon Freemasons.

“ I BELIEVE that by paying off Mr Le Riche it has been a misuse of public money and an easy option out. If Mr Le Riche was unhappy with his treatment whilst working for the town council, he should have resigned or made an official complaint which could have been dealt with in a professional manner. I am not happy to put my name to something like this, and it is a waste of public money - this is why I resigned.

FORMER Seaton Town councillor Jim Pigott, commenting on the resignation of town clerk Tony Le Rich and why he resigned his council seat.

“ WE are being fed a load of cp. Money has been raised for the hospital in this town over many years’

Axminster Town councillor John Jeffery on NHS Trust Devon's view that the day case surgery at Axminster Hospital is underused and therefore expensive to run, referring to the fact that the League of Friends had raised £3 million for the hospital.

Tigers waiting for punishment

AXMINSTER Town's stellar season has crumbled since the first team was involved in a mass brawl against Budleigh Salterton, resulting in the game being abandoned after 38 minutes and both clubs pleading guilty to misconduct charges.

The incident led to the resignation of manager Paul Ashford and several players leaving the Sector Lane club, including Ashford's sons Luke and Ben and Lewis Couch.

The Tigers were enjoyed their best ever season in the South West Peninsular League Division One (East), rising to the giddy heights of second place and were producing the form that warranted such an exalted position.

Experienced defender Darren Stewart, who enjoyed Western League experience with Bridport and Chard Town, was elevated from captain to acting manager until the end of the season, but Axminster's form has plummeted.

On Saturday they conceded four goals for the second week running, losing 4-0 to Appledore, a side they beat early in the season with ten men, and have slumped to sixth place with the chasing teams having games in hand.

Axminster don't have another league fixture until March 16th when they meet second placed Newton Abbot Spurs by which time they could have dropped further down the league.

The Tigers have also lost the services of Sector Lane stalwart Terry Emmett, one of Sector's top goalscorers over the years, to local rivals Millwey Rise, and there is also some doubt about the future of Emmett's brother Richie, one of the club's rising stars, who has sought a transfer to his home town club, Lyme Regis.

The disciplinary action taken against Axminster and Budleigh following their brawl in January was announced last week on the website of the South West Peninsular League.

A statement from league secretary Phil Hiscox said: "The matter has now been dealt with by Devon County FA. It is not for me to disclose all the details but suffice to say both clubs pleaded guilty to misconduct that led to the game being abandoned.

Both have been given identical punishments with three figure fines etc.

"The issue of individuals misconduct is a separate matter and they have obviously been dealt with taking into account the evidence and the previous record etc when determining punishments on individual players."

NHS Devon has also confirmed that an NHS local-authority board will meet on Wednesday, February 27th to make a decision on what day-case surgery will be commissioned to Axminster.

However, it is understood that the RD&E can reject whatever decision the local authority makes.

From the editor's chair Freewheelers rejoice

THE Devon Freewheelers are one of those charitable groups that perform an essential service with a minimum amount of fuss and very little publicity.

The Freewheelers, all motorcycle enthusiasts, ferry urgent supplies of blood and organs between Devon Hospitals, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with fuel costing about £2,000 a month.

Because of the awful weather last year many of their fundraising events had to be cancelled and by mid-December the Freewheelers were down to their last £600 and were only able to continue their vital work by the volunteers paying their own expenses.

What happened next is a classic example of the community spirit that is so prevalent in Honiton and other East Devon towns.

Following media coverage of their plight, a number of groups and individuals in Honiton have got together to ensure that the essential life-saving service provided by the Freewheelers is able to continue.

Owner of the Durham Way industrial units Mary Dommett was so impressed by the work of the bikers that she has provided them with permanent headquarters on the Heathpark Industrial estate so they can operate from safe and dry premises at minimal costs.

Their new base was officially opened last Friday with the Mayor of Honiton, Councillor David Foster and the former Chief Constable of Devon and Cornwall, Sir John Evans, cutting the ribbon.

At the same time the Freewheelers were able to take receipt of an ex-police demonstrator Kawasaki motorbike which the donors, the Freemasons in Devon, intend to fund for the next year.

The Freemasons had already made a donation of £2,000 to the Freewheelers to help them keep going over the Christmas period.

To round off this heartwarming story, Mark Rich, from AGM Solutions and treasurer of Honiton Chamber of Commerce, handed over a £1,500 website for use for the rest of their existence.

Understandably, the opening ceremony was a big occasion for the members of the Freewheelers who turn out at all hours in all weathers to ensure that blood and organs reach their destination in the quickest time possible.

The charity was set up a few years ago by Dan Lavery, who invested £15,000 of his own money to get the group off the ground. At the opening ceremony he acknowledged that the Freewheelers would not have been able to continue operating without such generous support.

Well done Honiton!

COLYTON

Fears over green wedge approval

CONCERNS have been raised that the proposed development of 172 houses on the green wedge between Colyford and Seaton will be "nodded through" following the outcome of a recent district council meeting.

The Mayor of Colyford and Colyton parish councillor, Howard West, has spoken out after East Devon District Council's Development Management Committee approved recommendations that could make it easier for the extensive development between Harepath Road and Colyford Road to be approved.

The decision was made following East Devon's refusal of developments at Feniton and Ottery St Mary, which were later approved on appeal. In his decision, the appeal inspector said there was a lack of a five-year land supply, required by government to accommodate housing needs, in the district.

The Development Management Committee met to discuss this issue and agreed that consideration of future planning applications would have to take this appeal decision and the inspector's reasoning into account.

Among other recommendations, councillors agreed to endorse the need for a six-year land supply and, when considering future applications, they would note "the need to grant approval for high quality development proposals in appropriate locations, compatible with council objectives and strategy, to help address land supply shortfall and address the objectives of securing sustainable development".

At last week's Colyton Parish Council meeting, district councillor Helen Parr explained that this meant all planning applications, even if they were outside of the development boundaries, would have to be considered in future.

Speaking to the Pulman's View, Councillor West said: "There's a lot of pressure on East Devon district councillors to approve largish planning applications that arrive. The next one to pop up will be our green wedge."

"I'm very, very concerned that when this application comes up, which I think will be at the next Development Management Committee, it's almost going to get nodded through."

Referring to land around Seaton Tesco at last week's parish council meeting, Councillor Stephen Real said: "I can't imagine that Seaton has not got enough land for development for the next five years when you see that giant mass of sandcastle."

SEATON

'Misuse of public money' claim

ONE of the councillors who quit Seaton Town Council two weeks ago has spoken out over his resignation, saying that the departure of the town clerk has led to a misuse of public money.

Following his resignation at a council meeting on Monday, January 28th, Councillor Jim Pigott has shed light on his reason for leaving the town council, explaining that the departure of town clerk Tony Le Riche was a "misuse of public money and an easy option out."

Mr Pigott alleged that after several councillors were not happy with the work of the town clerk,

Mr Pigott commented:

"Although some councillors were unhappy with the work of Mr Le Riche, I always found him easy to work with and when the item regarding the departure of Mr Le Riche was brought to the five of us on committee, two of us refused."

"I believe that by paying off Mr Le Riche it has been a misuse of public money and an easy option out. If Mr Le Riche was unhappy with his treatment he should have resigned or made an official complaint which could have been dealt with in a professional manner."

HONITON

New home for the Freewheelers

A LIFESAVING Devon charity has found a permanent headquarters in Honiton after a huge act of kindness was shown by members of the local community.

The Devon Freewheelers provide lifesaving volunteers to ferry urgent supplies of blood and organs by motorcycle between Devon Hospitals, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, at a cost of £2,000 a month.

After two years of vital voluntary work, the Devon Freewheelers were handed the keys to Unit 5 at Durham Way, on Heathpark Industrial Estate, last Monday, donated by the owner, Mary Dommett.

It gives the group a permanent home in Honiton for the future.

At the official opening of the new HQ on Friday, the Devon Freewheelers were joined by a whole host of local groups and organisations that made their bid to support the charity at all costs.

After the ribbon cutting ceremony, the Devon Freewheelers had yet more celebrations when they received a gift from Devon's Freemasons.

After seeing the charity struggle, the Freemasons came forward with an initial grant of £2,000, which enabled the charity to keep going over the busy Christmas period.

Aware that this was only a temporary fix and that other measures were necessary to ensure the continued operation of the vital service, the Freemasons were able to deliver to the event an ex-police demonstrator Kawasaki motorcycle, which they are to fund for the year.

SIDMOUTH/OTTERY

Work starts on recycling centre

CIVIC leaders have welcomed the formal construction start of a recycling centre that will serve Sidmouth, Ottery St Mary and surrounding areas.

A turf cutting ceremony was set to take place today (Tuesday) to mark and celebrate the start of construction.

Devon County Council chairman Jerry Brook was set to join local member for Sidmouth and Sidford, Councillor Stuart Hughes, local member for Ottery St Mary, Councillor Roger Giles and Cabinet member for Environment and Communities, Councillor Roger Croad, at The Bowd, Sidmouth, this morning.

Speaking prior to the event, Councillor Croad said: "This will be a modern, well designed facility, fit for purpose and a real asset for the community."

"In recent years, there has been much more emphasis on treating waste as resource and this will certainly help residents dispose of unwanted items but also allow us to supply the waste industry with quality materials."

"We have 20 recycling centres now across the county which make an enormous contribution to our waste reduction targets."

Rugby stars visit school

STREET dance and rugby were on the menu for a healthy lifestyle programme at Axminster Primary School.

Year 5 pupils are taking part in the programme, which has been devised by University of Exeter.

Physical activity is one of the corner stones and the school welcomed Just for Funk, a local dance group, on Wednesday, February 13th, for a street dance session.

Exeter Chiefs players Henry Slade and Dave Ewers (pictured with pupils) visited the following day and took a coaching session, wrote autographs and answered questions.

Call for big turn out at hospital meeting ceived a reply to its offer at the time of going to press.

The threat to day case surgery in Axminster was debated at length when Axminster Town Council met on Monday, February 11TH.

One councillor, John Jeffery, went as far as accusing the various NHS bodies involved of peddling cp.

He said: "We are being fed a lot of cp. Money has been raised in this town [for the hospital] over many years.

"To have a quango, which is what it is, to break that up....."

Councillor Ian Hall added: "I refuse to let these quangos make these decisions about our community.

"If we need to get out on the streets, so be it."

But it won't come to that, at least not yet. After having sought advice from Axminster Medical Practice, it was decided that the town council should write a letter in support of retaining a high level of day case surgery at the hospital.

Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding hopes for a big turnout and told Pulman's View: "We obviously want to get the views of the people of Axminster.

"We don't know the ins and outs of this. Is this the thin end of the wedge?"

New look for dental lab

DENTISTS are invited to an open evening for a look around a freshly refurbished laboratory in Axminster. George House Dental Laboratory was established in 1979 and specialises in prosthetics.

All its clients have been invited to an open evening on Friday, February 22nd during which the refurbished laboratory will be showcased.

Company spokesperson Lucy Woolley said that dentists not on the client list are more than welcome to attend should they so wish.

She added: "We pride ourselves on hand-crafted appliances made by experienced dental technicians, two of which have almost 50 years' experience at this laboratory.

"That is something very special. We are lucky to work for a number of local dentists who have supported us for some time.

"We embarked on a major re-furbishment of the laboratory, which included various building work initially, as well as new windows and doors throughout, a new heating system and a full lab re-fit.

"We are extremely pleased with the end result, as the lab is bright and airy, with excellent lighting and full work benches for each technician."

The open evening will be from 5pm-7pm in the company's Musbury Road premises.

Care Service cash boost for Cloakham

CLOAKHAM Lawn Sports Centre received a welcome financial boost when Axminster Care Service presented a £5,000 donation.

The presentation was made on Friday of last week and sports centre representatives reciprocated by providing a buffet lunch.

The sports centre has suffered because of bad weather and casualties include the indoor bowls facility, which was flooded, and the youth football pitch, which hasn't staged a game for months because of rain.

Although most of the material damage has been covered by insurance, it was impossible to stage training or matches on the bowls rink for some time.

Axminster Care Service ex-treasurer Norman Copland praised the sports centre for its work and hoped the money would help to continue the "wonderful work" at the centre.

Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre chairman Andrew Moulding said: "I would like to thank the care service, not only for the presentation today – but for all they do for Axminster."

He also said that, among other things, there are plans to improve the youth football pitch drainage system and to provide a water pump for the bowls facility

Strong opposition but planners say yes to new homes

PLANNERS has decided that two semi-detached dwellings can be built on land adjacent to Loup Court in Axminster.

East Devon District Council's Development Management Committee approved a planning application on Tuesday of last week.

A report recognised the fact that there was "considerable opposition" to the proposal.

Axminster Town Council was among objectors, and said after having seen amended plans: "The increase in provision of on-site parking is welcomed but the safe manoeuvring of vehicles accessing this, particularly on Site 1, will be compromised severely by the presence of vehicles parked legitimately on-road in Loup Court."

A report prepared for the committee meeting stated: "Whilst the application has raised considerable opposition, it is considered that the semi-detached format, use of materials common to this part of Axminster, and the position in relation to other nearby homes would be acceptable in terms of retaining privacy and the character of the area.

"The parking and access arrangements are considered appropriate to the scale of traffic likely to be generated from this proposal."

Football suspended at sport centre

FOOTBALL has been temporarily suspended at an Axminster venue to make sure players aren't hit by falling light fittings.

The venue in question is the main hall at Axminster Leisure Centre, which is managed by Leisure East Devon for East Devon District Council.

An EDDC spokesperson explained the problem by saying: "Contractors replaced light fittings at the centre in 2011 as part of a refurbishment programme.

"One or two early snags were rectified but it has recently emerged that there can be a problem if a football is kicked into the air and collides with the fittings.

"EDDC has arranged for its contractor to put in more robust fixing brackets to improve public safety.

"The work will be done during the half-term holiday to minimise disruption to the school and until the work is complete it will be necessary to suspend football in the hall."

MP Neil hosts full fry-up to promote British ingredients

LOCAL MP Neil Parish MP hosted a breakfast meeting for MPs in the House of Commons and industry experts to discuss challenges facing food production and farmers.

Mr Parish (pictured), who is the chairman of the All-Party Parliamentary Group for Pig and Poultry, served a full English breakfast to showcase some of the best British free-range eggs and bacon from British pigs.

Those attending discussed issues like the Welfare of Laying Hens Directive, non-compliant pig meat from EU Member states and the high feed costs which are putting enormous pressures on producers.

Speaking at the meeting Mr Parish said: "We have much to celebrate in the pig and poultry industries.

"The Lion and Red Tractor-assured schemes give consumers the confidence that their food was produced in this country and to the highest welfare standards.

"The pork, poultry meat and eggs sectors play a hugely important role contributing as they do many billions of pounds into our national economy – particular in our rural areas – and providing over a 100,000 jobs."

Second job club to help young people

A SECOND job club has opened its doors in Axminster.

Independent Futures (part of Devon & Cornwall Housing), is behind the initiative at Long Ragg Court and serves those aged between 16 and 24.

Long Ragg Court is run by Independent Futures and provides young people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness with temporary accommodation and support to get their lives back on track.

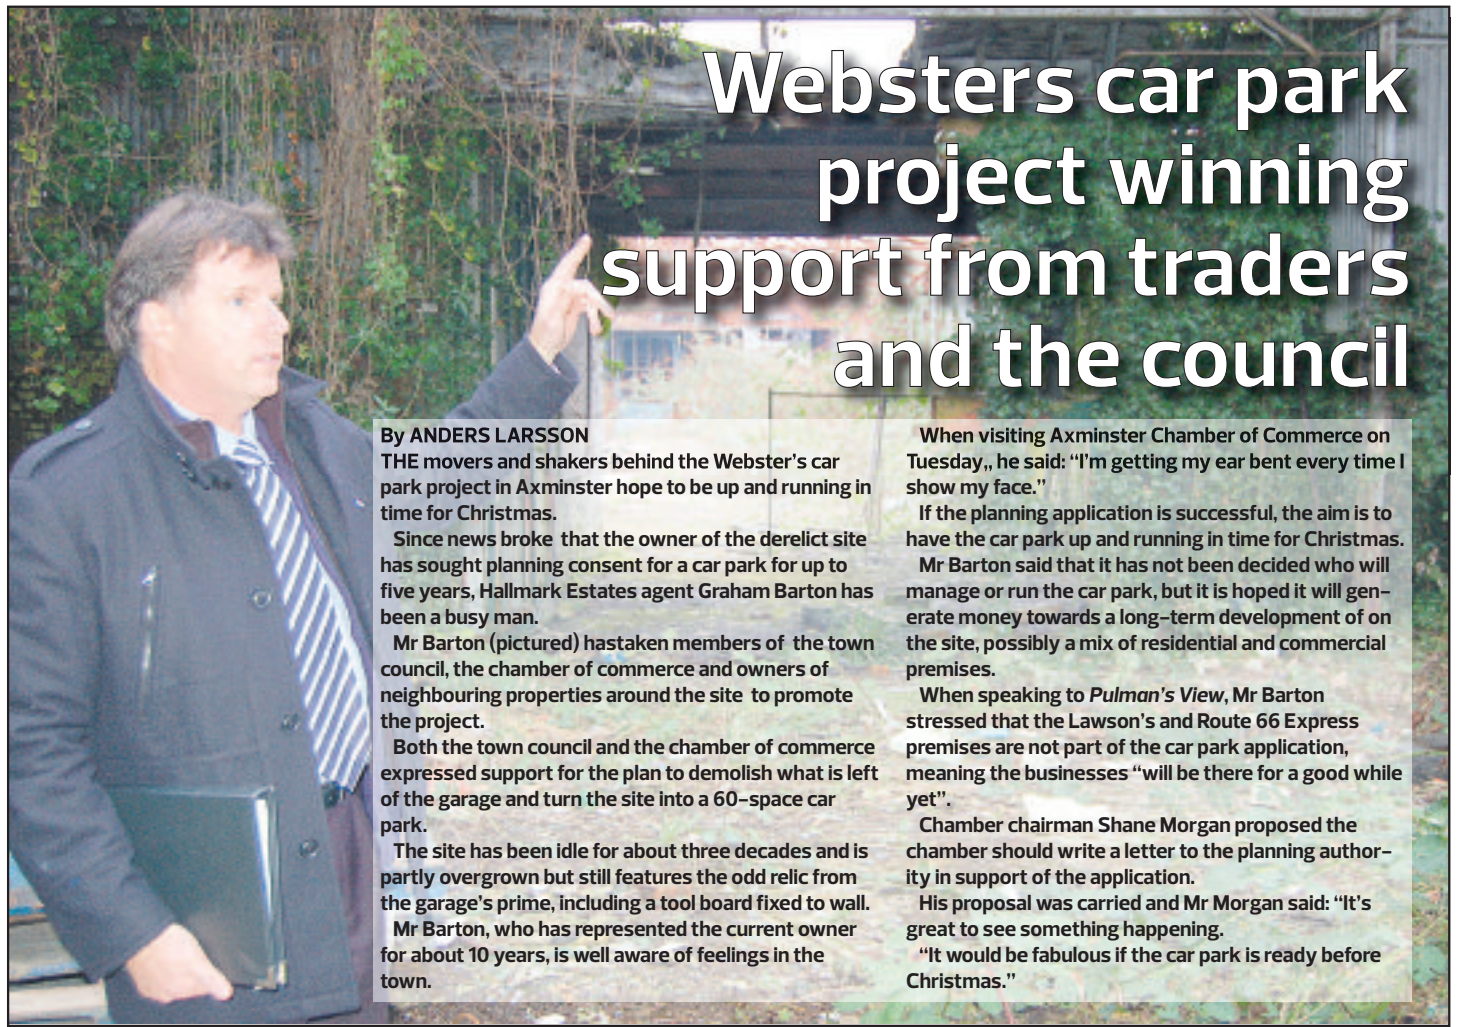

The job club runs on a drop-in basis every Wednesday from 12.30pm to 3pm in the recently refurbished communal room at Long Ragg Court and offers free internet access and friendly career advice to young people.

There is a range of support on offer from trained volunteers – including volunteers from Axminster Job Club who are on hand to help with CVs, covering letters and interview techniques.

Independent Futures support worker Chris O'Neill said: "Our vision is to create a warm and welcoming environment that encourages positive interaction for young people that want to improve their job prospects."

"Young people can actively engage with and share the job club facility whilst integrating with the wider local community."

"We are pleased to be working with trained career advice volunteers who are committed to this project who donate their time for this worthwhile cause."

Websters car park project winning support from traders and the council

By ANDERS LARSSON

THE movers and shakers behind the Webster's car park project in Axminster hope to be up and running in time for Christmas.

Since news broke that the owner of the derelict site has sought planning consent for a car park for up to five years, Hallmark Estates agent Graham Barton has been a busy man.

Mr Barton (pictured) has taken members of the town council, the chamber of commerce and owners of neighbouring properties around the site to promote the project.

Both the town council and the chamber of commerce expressed support for the plan to demolish what is left of the garage and turn the site into a 60-space car park.

The site has been idle for about three decades and is partly overgrown but still features the odd relic from the garage's prime, including a tool board fixed to wall.

Mr Barton, who has represented the current owner for about 10 years, is well aware of feelings in the town.

When visiting Axminster Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, he said: "I'm getting my ear bent every time I show my face."

If the planning application is successful, the aim is to have the car park up and running in time for Christmas.

Mr Barton said that it has not been decided who will manage or run the car park, but it is hoped it will generate money towards a long-term development of on the site, possibly a mix of residential and commercial premises.

When speaking to Pulman's View, Mr Barton stressed that the Lawson's and Route 66 Express premises are not part of the car park application, meaning the businesses "will be there for a good while yet".

Chamber chairman Shane Morgan proposed the chamber should write a letter to the planning authority in support of the application.

His proposal was carried and Mr Morgan said: "It's great to see something happening."

"It would be fabulous if the car park is ready before Christmas."

College students inspired by winter games

A 13-STRONG squad from Axe Valley Community College participated in Devon Winter Ability Games at Plymouth's Life Centre.

More than 450 participants from nearly 30 Devon schools descended on the centre and took part in a range of sports and activities including football, rowing, table-cricket, short tennis, tri-golf and bowls.

The aim of the event was to give participants the opportunity to try out and enjoy different sports, meet paralympic athletes as well as hopefully inspire the next generation of paralympic athletes.

The college's rowing team won first prize for the best poem on a sporting theme in the Paralympics poetry competition and the boys' football team was undefeated, registering a number of wins and one draw.

In addition, participants could also watch demonstrations by BMX star Andre Burton and meet two members of the GB blind football team, Robin Williams and Keryn Seal.

Axe Valley Community College sport co-ordinator Hannah Oxley said, "I was very proud of all the students who represented Axe Valley Community College.

"They were a pleasure to take and I look forward to more opportunities to do sport with them in the future, including a new club starting at the college for the students who attended the Winter Ability Games."

Real success

Teaching assistant Katie Murray added: "I felt the day was a real success. It really gave the students the chance to work as a team and participate in a range of different sports as well as watching demonstrations and meeting Paralympic athletes!

"The day was well organised with lots of things going on.

"The boys did extremely well with their football results while the rowers competed to a high level and even managed to come first in the poetry competition.

"I feel the day really inspired students to have ago and try out new sports that they otherwise would not have had the opportunity to do."

Crime down in January

AXMINSTER police officers on the town beat received 31 reports of crime in January this year, compared to 56 the previous year.

The statistics were revealed by PCSO Andy Trott in an e-mailed report to Axminster Town Council.

PCSO Trott was unable to attend the council meeting on Monday, February 11th but councillors were informed that reported crime in January included six alleged assaults, four burglaries and one break-in to a car.

Snow heroes

AXMINSTER town councillor John Jeffery has praised individuals and organisations who volunteered to help during recent heavy rain and snow.

Councillor Jeffery, the town council snow warden, told last week's meeting: "Our thanks to all those who called up and offered help."

He also praised the town council team, the fire service for its assistance and local company Westcrete for filling up sand bags.

Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding reciprocated by praising the work of Mr Jeffery and other town councillors.

Town councillor Ian Hall added that a number of teenagers in Millwey Rise also deserved praise for their efforts.

Seaton beat team surgery

THE Seaton Neighbourhood Beat Team will be holding 'Have Your Say' surgeries on Monday, February 25th in The Square, Seaton and in Branscombe Village Hall car park.

Members of the community are invited to attend and discuss any concerns they may have.

PCSOs Chris Bolsover and Mike McGauley will be available in Seaton between 10am and 11am and in Branscombe between 12noon and 1pm.

In the event of bad weather, the Seaton surgery will be held in the Community Resource Centre, Fore Street, Seaton (a few doors down from the town hall).

The EDDC Animal Warden and representatives from Seaton Town Council and Devon Highways will also be attending the surgery in Seaton.

Charities day

SEATON and District Lions Club members will be hosting a 'Charities Day' on Saturday, March 16th at Seaton Town Hall.

The day will aim to give various local charities the platform to advertise their organisation and promote their activities and charitable services to local people in the area.

The event will be open to the public from 9am-2:30pm and members of the Lions group hope for as much support from the public as possible to make the event a success.

Map will show what town has to offer

VISITORS to Seaton will now know exactly what's on offer thanks to the work of the Chamber of Commerce.

A brand new visitor's map has been placed at the town's public realm, soon to be officially named

'Thury Harcourt Place'. The map and sign welcomes visitors to Seaton and is hoped to make quite an impression on passers by, highlighting the town's main attractions with the hope it will increase footfall.

Twining association AGM

THE Seaton and District Twining Association will meet on Friday, February 22nd for one of its most important annual general meetings for many years.

As well as the usual election of officers and committee and discussion of the forthcoming visit by the French in July, the members at this year's meeting will be asked to make a number of changes to the constitution including enlarging the size of the committee and the direct election of a publicity officer.

The acting publicity officer Graham Jones explained that the association had experienced an increase of activity over recent years, which had also coincided with an increased necessity to keep in step with modern communication channels such as the web. It was felt that the present momentum could only be maintained with an expanded committee.

Mr Jones continued to explain that the town's association with its twinned town, Thury-Harcourt, should play a larger part in the consciousness of Seaton and it's surrounding district, with hope to increase awareness in the local community. Whilst working together in the twinning association, the group is also seeking closer contact with other local groups such as the canoe club and the Axe Valley Pedallers.

Mr Jones added that it does not seem to be widely known that Thury-Harcourt is an international canoe centre, which regularly hosts world-class events, and has a thriving canoe and kayak club. With this in mind, the group hope to use the link to create canoe based opportunities and activities for the town.

The meeting will be held at Crossroad Christian Centre at 7:30 pm and it is hoped that as many members as possible will attend. A great welcome will also be extended to anybody who is in anyway interested in joining or working with the association.

Alongside the AGM, the night's activities will also include refreshments and a multi-media quiz on popular films, music and television.

Anybody who would like to know more can simply turn up on the night or phone secretary, Wendy Greenland on 01297 20795.

Located in a central position, on the wall of the toilet block, representatives of the Chamber of Commerce hope the new addition will encourage visitors to find out more about what Seaton has to offer.

The map was a Chamber of Commerce-led initiative and came about as a response to feedback from the business community.

The project was led and organised by Seaton's Business Development Officer, Heidi Hallam, who was supported by Chamber members as well as members of EDDC and Seaton Town Council.

Heidi Hallam said: "Seaton is such a great place. We wanted to give visitors a better chance of finding out how easy it is to visit some of the local attractions like the shops, beach, Wetlands and Laby-rinth.

"Sometimes when you're local, you forget how confusing it can be to try and navigate around a town that you have never been to before.

"Although it is only one sign, we are working with partners to try and improve signage around Seaton.

"The aim is to help the many visitors who come to Seaton and encourage them to explore the High Street and other areas, ultimately supporting our friendly local businesses."

Chairman of the Seaton and District Chamber of Commerce, Marcus Hartnell, added: "Signage is one of the things that businesses are often raising as an issue of concern to them.

"We wanted to help those visitors who arrived in Seaton and weren't sure where to go.

"The public realm was chosen because it is an area where a lot of people congregate when they arrive, by whatever form of transport they have chosen.

"The sign is one of the many projects that the Chamber of Commerce is promoting to support local trade.

"We try to support the local business community in as many ways as we can. But we can only do this thanks to the energy and commitment of our members."

The chamber of commerce are always keen to hear from local businesses that are interested in becoming members.

If you would like to find out more, contact Heidi on 07973 403233 or email heidi.h@bipwestdevon.biz

Kids' writing workshop

■ CHILDREN from Beer C of E Primary School were joined by children's author Claran Murtagh for a 'Gifted and Talented Writers' workshop, held at Littleton Primary School in Honiton. Over the course of the day, the group of exceptional writers from Years Three and Four joined with schools from the Honiton learning community to create and share stories individually and as a group. They left with their own story to develop in the future.

Claran Murtagh is well known for his children's stories such as 'Dinopants' and 'Genie in Training' as well as his work with various children's television productions including 'Dick and Dom' and 'Sesame Street'. He said: "It's a great opportunity for children to learn from a professional like myself and also from each other. Most importantly it helps children realise that anyone can be a writer - all you need is a good idea, a pen and some practise."

Seaton schoolkids are in tune

■ SEATON Primary School have been recognised for their focus on singing in school after achieving the silver award from 'Sing Up'. The award is given to schools across the country that embrace singing throughout the school, whether through extra-curricular activities, lessons or on the main syllabus.

On presenting the award to Seaton Primary School, Ms Whyte of Sing Up said: "I am delighted to be able to endorse your award. It is clear that you are using singing throughout the school day to help with lessons and to celebrate as a community. I particularly enjoyed how singing is supporting learning different languages and to remember times tables in maths."

Sammy takes on the Grizzly for Children's Hospice SW

A YOUNG woman from Beer is set to face the gruelling Grizzly run to raise money for the Children's Hospice South West (CHSW).

This will be the second year in a row, that 19-year-old Sammy Barry will be taking part in the nine mile cub run alongside her family and friends, but this year she has set a much higher goal.

After completing the 2012 challenge in just over two hours, Sammy hopes to complete this year's run in less than two hours whilst raising money for charity.

Sammy has been inspired to raise money for the CHSW after being chosen to be part of a specialist development programme for talented staff at Axminster Tool Centre.

Sammy is one of the nine-person team named 'Aspire' which aims to give talented staff the opportunity and platform to develop skills toward future management.

Alongside the programme, the group have been presented with a fundraising challenge for CHSW and have already raised more than £1,000, so Sammy was inspired to get involved and raise further funds during her Grizzly run.

She explained: "After running the Grizzly last year and not getting sponsored I really regretted it, so I am looking forward to the challenge this year, knowing it will be for a good cause.

"I first set a goal of £100 and didn't think I would get that much but have already reached that goal.

"Now I hope to raise as much as possible for the Children's Hospice South West, particularly with the inspiration from my work with Axminster Tool Centre's Aspire team."

If you would like to sponsor Sammy, visit her charity fundraising website at www.chsw.org.uk/sammybarry and find out more.

Police to stage exhaust clinics to advise 'car enthusiasts'

POLICE in Axminster and Seaton have announced dates and times for car exhaust 'clinics' in the towns.

Police officers in both Axminster and Seaton have received complaints about loud cars cruising the streets, so-called boy racing.

The issue has also been raised at town council meetings, and police have decided to hold 'educational' events for 'car enthusiasts'.

Officers have been trained on a new piece of exhaust monitoring kit, and drivers will be invited to have their exhaust systems measured and receive advice.

Axminster-based PCSO Andy Trott said: "No tickets will be issued, it is purely to give advice."

The first exhaust clinic will be held in the Tesco car park in Seaton on Thursday, February 28th from 7pm-9pm.

A second session will be staged in the Axe Valley Community College car park in Axminster (Lyme Street entrance) on Friday, March 1st, also from 7pm-9pm.

Although no tickets will be given on the nights, police stressed that alternative action will be deployed in future should the situation not improve.

The issue of boy-racing was raised at a meeting of Axminster Town Council on Monday, February 11th. Apart from concerns about noise, fears were also expressed that there could be a serious accident.

Town councillor Jeremy Walden said: "It is not a new problem.

"Now as then, you need police presence in the town. They [drivers] will continue to do this as long as nobody stops them."

Volunteers wanted

MEMBERS of the Seaton, Beer and District branch of the RNLI are appealing for help to run their souvenir hut in Jubilee Gardens, Beer.

The village's RNLI supporters are keen to find volunteers to help man the hut from March 22nd to October 27th, so it can remain open during the spring and summer period.

Souvenir secretary, Audrey Tims, said: "The retail sales figures for the whole of 2012 came to over £37,000, despite the appalling weather throughout the year, and we would like to be able to try and equal this figure in 2013, or even beat it.

"However, the sales hut has lost three members of staff over the winter, due to various other commitments.

"I am now looking for some new volunteers to come and join the 'Hut Crew' for the season.

"I need people who can help on Sundays, either all day or a morning or afternoon shift, on Tuesday afternoons and on Wednesday mornings.

"There is no upper age limit for volunteers, but they must be reasonably fit.

"The hut is open every day, weather permitting, from 10am until 4:30pm and the shifts are usually for a period of three or three and a half hours.

"We are a very friendly and helpful group and always work around any holiday or days out arrangements that people may have and will cover someone's shift if they can't make it."

If anyone is interested in volunteering at the Lifeboat Hut in Beer, please contact Audrey on 01297 20048, or e-mail at audreytims@hotmail.co.uk

● THE Seaton, Beer and District RNLI AGM will take place on March 12th at The Dolphin Hotel.

The meeting will start at 7:30pm and anyone who wants to volunteer is welcome to come along.

Acupuncture is a great way of getting well and staying well!

Based on medical principles which have been developed, researched and refined for over 2000 years, acupuncture is a gentle, safe and effective natural therapy and as an increasingly popular form of healthcare is one of the fastest growing medical practices in the UK.

Common complaints that are successfully treated include back pain, sciatica, insomnia, low energy, chronic fatigue, headaches and migraines, gynaecology and fertility issues, IBS, sports injuries etc.

Lindy Parry Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend

House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Chiropractic Health Centre

THE Axminster and Honiton Chiropractic Centres were recently re-awarded the prestigious PPQM for the high standards of care. The Centres have been established for over twenty years now and we have seen over 10,000 patients in that time. So, even if we haven't helped you yet, we will have helped someone you know.

Chiropractic is mostly known as being probably the most effective way of treating low back pain, but we do much more. We look at all your muscles and joints and make sure that they are working as well as they can, so sorting out all kinds of problems, and aches and pains, from head to foot.

Chiropractic is regulated by law in a similar way to doctors and dentists in order to maintain standards and protect patients.

Clever script woves the Euro crisis

THEY do things a bit different in All Saints – especially when it comes to pantomime.

If you study the list of past productions, you will note a distinct uniqueness about the title of most of the pantos they have staged over the years.

Here's just a few: Ali Baba Din, Not So Snow White

■ WELCOME to our show – from cleaning lady Christine Galvin

Sidebawds and Drawers, Ali Baba and the Four Tea Thieves, The Good, The Bad and The Cider, Snow White and the Alternative Seven and Little Red Riding Hood and Mister Wolfe.

Home grown scripts are a bit of a tradition and their 21st production performed recently, Robin Hood, might be instantly recognisable but the script, I assure you, was most definitely not.

There was a thread of the popular Robin Hood myth running through the show, but the action was given a modern-day theme by being staged at the European Banking Convention, featuring characters clearly based on some of the top players in the current Euro crisis, including the cleverly named Frau Angular Murky, at the Castle of Nowhereinparticular.

The result was an extremely original script, probably the best local written one I have come across in reviewing locals pantomimes over 40 years and more, written by the talented Jo Ellis, who was also co-producer with Janet Verplanke.

I attended Robin Hood on the society's gala night which they staged after serving a candlelit supper a week after the pantomime proper to boost their fundraising for a local good cause, on this occasion for the village hall. This adds to the informality of the evening and the cast certainly seemed to more relaxed than might have been expected.

The audience certainly joined in the frivolity of the occasion, especially a contingent from Membury who rarely missed a chance to distract their fellow village thespians from sticking to the script.

I'm never quite sure at All Saints whether forgetting lines is compulsory or written into the script as part of the fun!

The storyline revolved around a meeting of assorted foreign dignitaries with nothing in common but desire to protect their assets, culminating in frayed tempers, insults thrown and a mass walk-out. A rookie cook summons her love-sick son, Robin Hood, and send him on a mission to the local action group.

The production opened with a welcome from the indomitable Christine Galvin, relegated to the role of cleaning the toilets, she said, although she played the part of the Queen and mysterious stranger, and an enthusiastic rendering of "Another Opening Another Show".

The production featured a number of swell chosen popular songs, including "Puppy Love" and "Lilly The Pink" which added much to the overall enjoyment.

Hilarious

I was particularly impressed with the performances of the two finance minsters – Gay Atkinson who maintained her German accent throughout wearing the most nuclear blonde pigtailed wig I have ever seen, and Michael Shaw who was hilarious in the role of the French economic minister with an accent which would not have been out of place in the hit TV series "Allo Allo".

They got good support in their nefarious efforts to drum up more taxes from Paul Frisby as the Chief Banker of Notanywhereinparticular, and Clive Bare-ham as the Sheriff. Star of the show, however, was undoubtedly Steve Holt in the dame role of Mrs Hood, the cook. He dealt magnificently with the adlibs and audience asides and was particularly funny in his rendering of "Bad Things Are Just Around The Corner".

David Campbell's portrayal of Robin Hood did not exactly fit the image of the swashbuckling super-

JM AutoServices moves to new Seaton premises

DO YOU remember us? JM AUTOSERVICES at the bottom of Castle Hill in Axminster. We are moving to brand new unit in Seaton. After being in Axminster for just over two years, due to weather conditions making our current location impossible to work in, we have made the bold decision to move, but don't worry, we are only moving to Seaton and as we value your custom we will be offering existing customers from the Axminster area a free collection and delivery service for your vehicles for the first six months to allow you all time to adjust to our moving.

We will be relocating the garage ready for March 1st, and will be in contact with all of our customers who have their cars booked in around this date to offer free collection and delivery, to ensure that our usual high standard of work with minimal fuss during the move is maintained.

Our second bit of exciting news is that my partner Sarah will now be our full time receptionist, allowing me to be released from the office and to be full time with our second mechanic Sam Hill. I would like to congratulate Sam Hill on completing his apprentice course and thank him for all his hard work and commitment to the company.

Hospital money better spent on surgeon and nursing team

■ WITH regards to the suggestion of using monies raised by the League of Friends subsidising to keep services in the town: would the money be better spent on the employment of a general surgeon and nursing team based at the hospital and having a ward allocated for patients that have undergone surgery for recovery, further treatment and monitoring?

With patients being treated locally and within easy reach by their families, recovery is likely to be quicker, thus saving of money for the NHS. Also, the theatre being used more of the time bringing in more money. More money to improve hospitals, increase services provided, etc.

The idea of medical practices having control over their budgets and commissioning of services, could not Axminster hospital be a general surgery base for the Axe Valley and surrounding area?

It is to be accepted that for more specialised work, consultations and surgery has to be carried out at larger general hospitals such as the RD&E, Musgrove Park, etc. purely for the fact that it would be uneconomic to carry out such procedures at the smaller hospitals.

After all, it is supposed to be the National Health Service - services should be seamlessly linked together and hospitals should be not bickering and drawing battle lines over who has which patients and where surgical processes are to be provided.

The NHS is one of the things that makes Britain the envy of the world. Let's not be presiding over the gradual breaking up of NHS services.

Giving dog owners a bad name

■ AS an owner again of a newly-acquired dog, it has highlighted even more just how hazardous a nice walk is, steering myself and my dog around all these dirty dog messes.

Do these irresponsible owners realise it gives us all a bad name? So please pick up these dirty dollops and make walking a pleasure for everyone - and roll on us having a dog warden!

VANDA GODFREY,
Stock Lane, Seaton

Should we ban humans too?

■ DOES Francis Hillier also suggest banning humans from the beach in Seaton all year round?

Over the years my children have come across syringes, broken glass, barbeque trays still hot, and all sorts of litter on our beach. We don't hysterically call for the banning of humans.

We need to educate people with regards to littering of all sorts, and this includes dog poo.

Francis may forget that many of us responsible dog owners pay a lot of council tax to live here with our dogs, because we love to be by the sea with them. Calling for a total ban shows Francis not to be a dog owner, but guess what?

Lots of us are, lots of us do pick up, and lots support the idea of a dog warden.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

There will be universal sympathy for all members of the Catholic Church that Benedict XVI their Pope has felt the need to resign at the end of February, due to his weakness "in mind and body".

He is the first pontiff in 600 years to resign and it would indicate a measure of the immense demands upon his office. Tributes to his papacy will be covered elsewhere, and his successor is likely to be in office by Easter.

In other places life continues, and in the Anglican church the House of Bishops of their General Synod has decided to elect eight "observer bishops" to help resolve the row over the consecration of women.

It is suggested that Canon Jane Hedges, recently Rector of Honiton, now a Canon at Westminster Abbey, will join with the Deans of Salisbury and York and others appointed to this group.

The Free Church of England does not figure often in our view but the Church of England has just agreed to recognise a common Episcopal heritage which it is hoped will strengthen both traditions.

This column recently reported that the future promises of Scouts and Guides are being reviewed. Now Diocesan Bishops have urged churchgoers to contribute to this debate. A briefing paper 'Keeping the Promise' is available on the C of E Website.

National figures suggest that church metal thefts have dropped dramatically (50 per cent in Exeter Diocese) but sadly church buildings in Honiton Deanery have suffered again.

The Ecclesiastical is offering worst hit customers a donation to install wireless alarms and a supply of SmartWater to assist recoveries.

More bad news locally is of vandalism in the east of our area at Uplyme. A callous vandal has cut down all the daffodils in the church cemetery recently, which causes sadness for those who remember their loved ones with the splash of colour.

Traditional pancakes were served in parishes of East Devon on Shrove Tuesday, and the next day - Ash Wednesday - was marked by the Imposition of Ashes during Holy Communion.

Palm Crosses made in our Companion Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf will be available later - enquiries to 01395 269811.

Lent courses and other events are starting or are in progress in the churches of East Devon - do consult church magazines or notice boards for full details.

In many churches, events are likely to move round the different local churches each week.

A final word about our new Archbishop of Canterbury who has taken control of his work diary to allow him 'space'.

Dates already in March record 15 major events including visits to Rome and Wales. Lambeth Palace reports that changes were made to allow a true reflection of his priorities.

BRENDAN Salter lives just outside Axminster and runs his own commercial mediation company, Salter Mediation. He left London to start his own company after doing a Masters in business. Brendan is a school governor and other interests include business mentoring.

● TELL us about your background:
I moved here 20 odd years ago from Watford, Hertfordshire. I worked in the West End of London for a number of companies ranging from small to PLCs in senior management.

● WHAT exactly is commercial mediation?

It is an alternative to the normal procedure of going to a solicitor and, potentially, ending up in court. Most disputes aren't black and white. But the court system doesn't allow for that - you either win or lose in court. With mediation you can end up with a solution that both parties can live with. Mediation is confidential. Information about one party is only disclosed to the other party if permission is given. My catchphrase is: 'You go to court for a fight, you go to mediation for a solution.'

● What makes you happy?

Achieving, whether it is me or others achieving. For example, I've been a governor at Colyton Grammar School for about 15 years, where there has been great achievements.

● WHAT makes you angry or less happy?

People who don't try. I've got endless patience until people just stop trying. But I don't get angry, I step aside.

● WHAT do you hope 2013 will bring?

Happiness and contentment. It's really important to be happy and content with what you do and what you represent. I certainly wouldn't do what I do if I didn't enjoy it.

● WHAT are the strong points of Axminster and the surrounding area?

The accessibility of the beauty of the area, and the links to other parts of the UK. You are so well placed. For example, in two and a half hours I can be in London. Many friends and contacts in London are envious.

● WHAT could be done to improve the town and the surrounding area?

It is disappointing that car park charges are so high. It does have a negative impact on the community aspect of a beautiful town.

● DO you follow or participate in any sports?

No. I keep myself very fit, I think. I have a stretching regime. Other than that I just stick to a healthy lifestyle, but no sports as such. When I was at school, I played badminton in the county (Herts) league, though.

● WHICH three famous or known people, dead or alive, would you invite for a dinner party?

John Mortimer because he could find a way of solving any issue, which is just like mediation. Boris Johnson because he is controversial and thinks outside the box. Sara Randall Johnson, of Flybe, because she is a very good people person and has the ability to see the concept rather than being hidebound by rules and regulations.

Perfect setting, glorious food

PERCHED high on the headland at the mouth of Cornwall's trendy Camel Estuary, the St Moritz Hotel reeks of decadence but in a non-pretentious way.

With the North Cornwall beaches in close proximity, and glorious views over the Atlantic, there can be few better places to spend a weekend break away from the rigours of the daily grind.

We chose the coldest weekend of the winter for our sojourn into Cornwall, although as Devon was snow-bound and shivered in sub-zero temperatures there was little of the white stuff west of Exeter with the Duchy basking in temperatures of five degrees and more.

Even in such arctic conditions, the journey from enjoys a weekend

break at the luxurious
St Moritz Hotel in Cornwall

Pulman's Country into deepest Cornwall took just over two hours and a warm welcome was awaiting from the staff at St Moritz.

A luxury hotel has stood on this stunning site overlooking Daymer Bay, near Rock, since the 1930s, making it the perfect setting for the ultimate luxurious break.

The original, imposing private house belonged to a couple called the Underwoods who, after the war, reinvented it as a luxurious hotel. On his trips to St Moritz, Richard Underwood found a commitment matching his own for haute cuisine, excellent service and attention to detail, and named the hotel after the Swiss town.

The St Moritz became truly international. Its chefs learned their trade in Switzerland and the excellence they brought back – and on which the Underwoods insisted throughout – saw its reputation soar. Politicians, film stars, business leaders and writers were drawn to the spectacular coast but, most of all, to the hotel's celebrated levels of service.

Brothers Hugh and Stephen Ridgway, the new owners, bulldozed the original building and in a £15 million development completed in 2008, recreated those heady art deco days of the 1950s with an hotel and leisure complex which is dedicated to supplying the perfect antidote to the daily stresses of urban life.

■ THE St Moritz Hotel at Trebetherick which commands glorious views over the Camel Estuary

Standing on the Trebetherick headland, with inspiring views over the estuary between the trendy resorts of Polzeath and Rock and within easy reach of some of Cornwall's most popular attractions, the St Moritz is the ideal base for getting acquainted with the magic of Cornwall.

But don't be fooled into thinking that this is just a posh pad for yuppie couples; the St Moritz is very much a family hotel. Despite its obvious opulence, the first thing we noticed was the collection of kiddie essentials in the foyer – buckets and spades, wellie boots, skateboards and even a surfboard.

The hotel also has its own holiday club for children, branded as the Mini Moritz, with a host of activities including sand safaris, not to mention their own menu and cocktails.

We spent our two nights at the St Moritz in a ground floor suite which included its own kitchen and which would have made any Domestic Goddess salivate. Not that we intended using it with one of Cornwall's best restaurants waiting for our custom in the main body of the hotel.

Committed to the finest British food

The suite was all you would expect and more from an hotel with St Moritz's reputation, comfortable sitting area, sliding door access to your own sitting out area, massive bed and a welcome box of goodies with romance in mind which included truffles, a free DVD of Audrey Hepburn's "Breakfast at Tiffany's" and a game of Truth or Dare.

The snow had caused a number of cancellations from guests intending to stay at the weekend but did not seem to affect the restaurant where the high standards expected in this part of Cornwall were clearly satisfied by new head chef Nick Osborne.

Committed to the finest British food, predominantly Cornish ingredients, his team of nine chefs working in the open kitchen, make the dining experience more interesting, demonstrating huge attention to detail and presentation.

With its proximity to the Cornish ports, fish features prominently on the menu with Nick not finalising the evening menu until he has bought his fresh fish, landed by the daytime fisherman from Port Isaac to Newlyn.

Saturday morning was spent touring this corner of Cornwall with the obligatory visit to Padstow, followed by lunch in the St Moritz's Sea Side restaurant with has easy access from the pool and beach hut area.

The atmosphere in the Sea Side is much more relaxing but with an equally interesting fish dominated menu together with some favourites much in evidence.

Enjoying that gastronomic delights of the St Moritz is a big part of the hotel's attraction and we were not disappointed with the standard of the cuisine, and that included a more than adequate breakfast table.

Before driving back into the arctic wastes of Devon and Dorset on the Sunday morning we were treated to the ultimate parting gift – a fully body massage in the St Moritz Cowshed, an unusual name for such a sensuous treatment but part of a global chain of spas.

We left Trebetherick thoroughly relaxed and determined to return in the summer months.

If you have an important anniversary to celebrate, or you just what to pamper yourself, then a visit to St Moritz will tick all the boxes.

St Moritz Hotel, Trebetherick, Wadebridge, Cornwall PL27 6SD. Tel: 01208 862242. Stmoritzhotel.co.uk. Special decadence weekends: £349 for two. Late booking, one night B & B £99.

Axe Vale Orchestra's Colyton concert

THE Axe Vale Orchestra is now in its seventh year giving concerts in and around Axminster and Colyton.

Their next performance, in Colyton, presents a concert with a mixture of well-known and less familiar works from the classical repertoire.

They are conducted by Adrian Carpenter and led by Alex Ennis.

Mozart's Symphony no. 40 is one of three last symphonies by the composer, which are considered by many to be his finest. It is, unusually for Mozart, in a minor key and its tragic tones perhaps reflect the personal tragedy which he was experiencing at the time.

Another musical prodigy, the French composer Georges Bizet, is well known for the opera Carmen, but also well known to many pianists for his suite of miniatures Jeux d'Enfants (Children's Games) depicting scenes from the playground, with such engaging titles as 'The Doll', 'The Top', 'Little Husband, Little Wife'. The composer himself orchestrated five of the movements as 'Petite Suite' in 1871 and re-arranged the movements to provide a range of moods and orchestral colour.

The two less well-known works are by Carl Maria von Weber and William Mathias. Weber, chiefly known as a composer of opera, had a liking for wind instruments and his Concerto for Bassoon and Orchestra in F has much that is dramatic, contrasting military march with reflective calm, athletic leaps from top to bottom of the instrument, theatricality and operatic lyricism, wit and humour.

The solo will be played by the one of orchestra's regular bassoonists, Peter Dawson.

The other lesser known work is by the contemporary composer William Mathias, who wrote an anthem for the wedding of the Prince of Wales and Diana, Princess of Wales, and has written much vocal and instrumental music for players and singers of all standards. His Serenade for Small Orchestra dates from 1961 and, in the words of one commentator, 'has shifting tonal centres, a device which adds spice without placing a heavy demand on the listener'.

The concert takes place on Sunday, February 24th at 3.00pm in the Feoffees Hall, Colyton. Tickets (adults £9, children and students free) will be available from Brainwave in Colyton (tel. 01297 551302), The Archway bookshop in Axminster (tel. 01297 33595) and on the door. As usual, the concert will be followed by a delicious spread of home-made cakes and tea.

Enjoy the Model Railway Exhibition and Orion at Pecorama

AS YOU enter Pecorama, the Exhibition and shop welcomes you to the home of the famous PECO brand of model railways, one of the last major model railway production facilities left in the UK. The factory alongside Pecorama produces many hundreds of items for the enthusiast every day, utilising modern specialist machinery with highly skilled local labour.

Since railways fascinate so many adults and children alike in all walks of life, it is not surprising that such a large number of homes already have a model railway. Some enthusiasts are deterred from the hobby in the belief that they would need more space. However our Model Railway Exhibition aims to inspire modellers by demonstrating a variety of practical small layouts to suit every home – with options indoors and in the garden. All boast interactive features and an impressive amount of detail, even those who don't model will marvel at the craft work involved.

Don't miss the chance to play the free quiz during the school holidays. A selection of multiple-choice questions, all related to the layouts, will keep families entertained. The weekly prize is an item of model railway rolling stock. There are no trick questions, but keen eyed observation is essential if you want to be in the prize draw hat.

STANDING in the siding at Beer Victoria Station, is the beautifully preserved 'Orion' Pullman car; part of the 'Golden Arrow' train that used to run from Victoria Station, London to the Channel coast.

Bought and saved from the scrap-heap by Pecorama, Orion was restored by highly skilled craftsmen at the British Rail works in Wolverton. Here the vehicle was repainted in the distinguished umber and cream 'Pullman' livery adding the elaborate lining and coats of arms that adorned these cars in years gone by. The interior, while retaining all the beauty of the original brass decoration and polished wood-work, has been completely refurbished by local craftsmen to include individual seating, an entirely redesigned kitchen and drink dispensary.

It was in January of 1978 that the 40 ton Orion Car was transported the arduous 250 miles by road and now stands majestically at rest adjoining the full size replica station.

Seaton Tramway

SEATON Tramway runs for three miles through East Devon's glorious Axe Valley. Views of the estuary and its wading birds are unrivalled from the popular open toppers, whilst enclosed saloons maintain comfort during bad weather.

The Tramway originated from a miniature system in 1949, which evolved into Eastbourne Tramway (1954-1969). The move to Seaton occurred in 1970, after the company purchased the trackbed of the ex-BR branch.

The terminus is in Harbour Road Car Park, Seaton, from where the trams take you through the Axe Valley to Colyton. You can break your journey at the gift shop and restaurant, which offer a range of souvenirs, hot and cold food, and of course cream teas! The town centre is a short walk; sights include the 12th century church, with its unusual lantern tower.

Look out for all Seaton Tramway's special events – Mother's Day Special – Mum travels Free on March 10th, and the Jazz Evening with Coly River Jazz Band at Colyton Station on March 30th plus lots more. For more details call 01297 20375 or visit the website www.tram.co.uk.

Rugged-looking Cross up! ready for Geneva show debut

VOLKSWAGEN is expanding its range of striking Cross models with the Cross up!, which will go on sale in Europe from late summer. It will join the CrossPolo, CrossGolf and CrossTouran models, which have been a big success in Europe.

Cross models are individualised Volkswagen models with a particularly rugged design and tough, lifestyle qualities. Thanks to numerous striking exterior elements, the Cross up! is instantly recognisable as a stand-alone model: sideways on, for example, black mouldings on the wheel arches and sills, plus full-length door protector strips topped with 'Cross up!' lettering create a sporty look. Further unmistakable features of the Cross up! include the silver roof rails, the wing mirrors in a light silver metallic finish and bumpers also incorporating silver elements. The robust, sporty character is defined above all by the extra ride height and the 'Cross' 16-inch alloys with a high-sheen finish and 185/50 tyres.

High-quality details are also to be found in the interior of the Cross up!, from kick-plates with 'Cross up!' lettering to seats in a special trim (in a choice of red or anthracite), an instrument panel with high-quality dash-pad (in a choice of red, black or dark silver), and a leather-covered steering wheel and hand-brake lever.

The Cross up! is equipped to a high specification: included as standard are remote central locking, electric front windows, fog lights, electrically adjustable heated wing mirrors, an asymmetrically split, folding rear seat with headrests, a variable-height boot floor, a rev counter, a multifunction display and ESC electronic stability programme.

A 55 kW / 75 PS three-cylinder petrol engine combined with a five-speed manual transmission serve as the power train for the lifestyle-oriented Cross up!, which is available in Germany from late summer at a starting price of €13,925. UK sales are under consideration, but not confirmed.

Millwey Rise retain Intermediate cup

MATCH REPORTS

MILLWEY RISE 9 OTTERTON 2

Devon Intermediate (East) Final
MILLWEY Rise crushed Otterton 9-2 at Harry's Field to retain the Devon Intermediate cup (Eastern Section).

Sam Dibbling fired the Rise into an early lead and went on to notch a hat-trick and take his tally for the season up to 22.

Rise led 3-1 at half-time before turning up the heat with a much improved second-half showing. Assistant manager Gary Bridge said: "We were no better than ok in the first-half. But we went up a couple of gears after the break and turned on the style scoring some fantastic goals."

The pick of the nine came from Nathan Wormesley who cut in from his flank position before cracking home a fierce angled shot into he top corner.

Bridge gave his Man-of-the-Match award to the hard-working Terry Emmett who scored once and had a hand in four of the others.

Full list of scorers; Dibbling (3), Wormesley (2), Emmett, Ben Turner, Callum Garrett, Alex Rockett.

EXMOUTH AMAT 3 AXMINSTER RES 2

Devon & Exeter League Division Four
The early exchanges were pretty even until Axminster went 1-0 up through James Salter.

Ex-Farway United striker Salter then added a second just after the half-hour and the Tigers held the upper hand going into the break.

But the hosts made the better start after the interval scoring twice to level the score at 2-2.

A third goal ultimately left Axminster empty-handed although this could have been a different story had two late chances been converted.

Tigers' assistant-manager John Broom felt a draw would have been a fair result on a sticky pitch.

BEER ALBION RES 1 WESTEXE 0

Devon & Exeter League Division Five
THE Fishermen bagged a well-deserved three points from a game that they should should have had been at half-time.

Soon after the restart Robert Adkin picked out a superb though ball to Sam Phillips who hit a first time left-foot piledriver into the roof of the net.

Heroics from the visiting goalkeeper kept his side in the game.

Beer manager Matt Hales said: "That's seven games unbeaten now since Christmas. I just wish we had hit this sort of form a few games earlier. Another four wins should be enough to save us from relegation."

Hales' Man-of-the-Match was split between Adkin and Sam Phillips.

Round-up

FIREWATCH Devon Senior Cup holders BOW AAC are out after losing their quarter final on a penalty shoot out to WINDMILL FC from Plymouth. It finished 2-2 at the end of normal time and extra-time, but Windmill had the edge with spot-kicks 4-2.

Tiverton Town won their quarter final 4-1 against BOVEY TRACEY with Kieran Rapo getting a hat-trick.

TOPSHAM TOWN are through after they won 2-1 at BUCKFASTLEIGH with Ryan Western and Nick Bartlett scoring, but the other tie between COLATON RALEIGH and HONITON TOWN was postponed because of a waterlogged pitch.

A brilliant 75th minute Mark Lake free-kick earned HATHERLEIGH TOWN a 1-0 victory at Premier leaders FENITON, and brought the two main title contenders level.

Hatherleigh had earlier missed a penalty by top scorer Greg Mitchell, but they dug in deep to destroy Fenitons long unbeaten record.

Feniton had a penalty denied and hit the bar, but overall they never looked confident to preserve their 100 percent home record.

NEWTOWN had their hopes dented by a 2-2 draw against visiting WILLAND ROVERS, Ben Howard and Corey O'Donoghue getting the home goals.

SEATON TOWN without a win for some time got the better of THORVERTON 2-0, and the mid-Devon side drop back into the relegation zone. Mark Hancock and Josh French scored for Seaton.

CLYST VALLEY wrapped up a crucial three points at BUDLEIGH SALTERTON coming from behind to score through Robbie Miller, Ryan Saunders and John Snow. Richard Higham was the Robins' marksman.

SIDBURY UNITED hopes of going joint top of Division One were undone at WELLINGTON TOWN where the founded 2-0. Sam Bryant and Ollie Nott scored for the Wellies.

TIPTON ST JOHN still await their first win after slipping up 4-2 against HEAVITREE SOCIAL UNITED.

Division Two leaders ELMORE were surprised 1-0 at CLYST VALLEY and it was a victory well deserved thanks to a Craig Thompson strike.

DAWLISH UNITED picked up ground when they beat neighbours CHAGFORD 4-1, Robbie Miller was the moonscoring scorer.

HALWILL were 2-1 winners against BEACON KNIGHTS who drop from second to third.

UPOTTERY provided the big upset of the day in Division Three winning 3-2 at DOLPHIN, the Exeter teams first defeat.

The new leaders are LYMPSTONE who have literally shot up the table since the new year. The Lympts beat OTTERTY ST MARY 2-0 with Andy Lowe and Jeff Dorman scoring.

Division Six leaders DUNKESWELL were blown away 6-0 at STOKES HILL. Former leaders FENITON lost 5-3 at MORCHARD BISHOP whose Ryan Piper hammered four goals.

On Sunday SEATON TOWN upset the formbook by crushing FENITON 7-2 in the East Devon Senior cup. Mark Hancock (3), Cameron Vere, Sam Jones, Josh French and Harry Bulmer scored for the Seasideers

Sea angling Beer SAA

ON Saturday Beer Sea Angling Association held its February Rover (fishing any area, for eight hours from 10am-10pm).

With members heading off both East and West hopes were high of a few fish turning up.

Fishing in drizzle and light rain, the fish were hard to come by with most coming from Chesil Beach.

Fish caught on the night included; Bullhuss, Dogfish, 3 and 5 Bearded Rockling, Pout, Pollock and Conger.

In first place was Chris Sweetland with 268.39 (Ferry-bridge), 2nd went to Julian Driver with 206.25 (Cogdon) and 3rd was Steve Woodman with 180.42 (Seatown).

Best fish was a Dogfish of 2lb 5oz for Luke Bartlett (Beer Head).

The club's next competition is on the Saturday, March 16th at Branscombe.

JOHN Adkin, a member of Beer & District SAA fished Chesil beach on Saturday morning, after flats, with ragworm as bait.

Fishing was slow with just the odd pout and whiting coming in, then a little bite progressed into a bigger one and John wound in to find the beautypictured above on the end. Weighing 3lb exactly, it's hopefully a good sign for the season ahead.

SENIORS

THE Seniors' Winter League Programme is nearing its conclusion.

On Friday last Chris Walker and Nick Povey increased their lead at the top with an excellent winning round of 39 points.

This was one ahead of second placed Terry Jessup and Jack Bannister, who are now two shots adrift of the leaders in the whole event, each having one final round to play.

Third place on Friday with 37 points, went to John Mant and Phil Christmas but third place in the overall competition is occupied by Rob Heard and Hugh Willis, four points behind the leaders.

Unfortunately there was no play for the Main Club or the Ladies this week, but on Monday in extremely cold, wet and windy conditions the Seniors and the Ladies were able to compete for one of their annual events a 15 hole Foursomes.

The winners with 34 points were Lesley Crawford and Tony Strong.

Pauline Willis and Peter Knighting were second with 31 points on countback from Glenda Board and Chris Walker.

HONITON with Andy Wagner
THANK goodness for a dry day that enabled the Tuesday Mixed Competition to take place.

The format was Treble Six with 32 members playing. The winners with 38pts on countback were Jan Dickinson and Seniors Vice-Captain Bill Eaton.

In 2nd place also with 38pts were Carole Booth and Max Pipe, 3rd place went to Sue Ritchie and Seniors Captain Bob Underwood with 37pts.

Meanwhile Maureen Tollemache and Paul Witton secured 4th place with 36pts on countback.

The Mixed Competition Golfer of the Year Trophy was presented by the Lady Vice Captain Elizabeth Davies to Andy Sharland. Jan Dickinson was the runner-up.

BEER'S point from their home draw with Colyton added to their two from their 5-3 away win leaves them in third place in the Evening League.

This is one point behind Colyton and one ahead of Sidbury, who were also winners away from home by a 6-2 margin.

In the afternoon league Colyton moved up to second place after their 5-3 away win, Musbury won 6-2 to move up three places to third spot.

The drawn game at Lyme Regis had no effect on league positions leaving Seaton Cliff A second, Lyme fifth.

In division three there were no positional changes after Chard B's 5-3 win and their A team colleagues' tied game at Seaton Cliff against their C team - 4 games all, 57 shots apiece.

In the knock-out competition there were two very close matches between the Sidbury and Awliscombe B teams.

In each match the games were shared 3-3.

At Awliscombe the home team had a five shot advantage, but at Sidbury the home team's nine shot margin takes them through by four shots to earn a match against last year's winners Colyton.

Chiefs complete impressive comeback

WITH WILL MOWBRAY

Oldfield OB 19 Sidmouth 25

THREE well-executed tries were enough to earn Sidmouth four league points and their second away win of the season.

Playing up the slope in the first-half Sidmouth's man-to-man marking let them down on occasions, allowing Oldfield to score two tries for 12-0 lead.

Sidmouth replied with a Tom Whelan penalty and then on the stroke of half-time produced an excellent try. Jack Pyne ripped the ball away from the opposition in his own twenty-two and sent brother Ollie on a powerful run up the left hand touch line supported by Chris Higgs.

The ball was moved in-field where skipper Alan Huddleday committed the mid-field defence, creating enough space outside for Glen Channing to dummy his way through and show enough acceleration to take him the remaining 40 metres to the line. Whelan converted for a half-time score of 12-10 in favour of Oldfield.

turning point

Eleven minutes into the second-half Sidmouth took the lead from a set-piece line-out move. Channing and Dwight Pansegrouw combined powerfully in the centre to make the initial break and second row Chris Courtier showed impressive mobility to be on hand to complete the touch down.

As the game progressed Sidmouth's front row of Matt Lovesey, James Perry and Huddleday began to dominate their opposite numbers and when they secured a strike against the head centre Jason Luff was quick to exploit a gap in the Oldfield defence, taking play to within 5 metres of the try line.

After a couple of rucks Jack Pyne was on hand to blast his way over from short range. Whelan converted for a comfortable ten-point lead.

There was still time for Oldfield to respond with a converted try of their own but when they turned down a kickable penalty in an attempt to score another try the Sidmouth forwards secured possession and the ball was kicked deep down field.

In the ensuing scramble Oldfield were penalised and Tom Whelan converted for a final score of 25-19 to Sidmouth. The Man-of-the-Match Award went to Glen Channing.

■ HONITON Seconds had a walkover this week as Tavistock failed to get enough numbers to travel. This meant Honiton got the win and the points.

Youth Rugby

Honiton U9s v Exmouth U9s

THE U9s returned to action this week with a double win over Exmouth.

Man-of-the-match award went to Joe Evans who cut the defence to ribbons with 6 tries and Josh Giles who tackled tirelessly all afternoon. A great team effort by all involved, with further tries from Tim Goody, Charlie Sheppard, River Leisk and James Harris.

Honiton U11s v Exmouth U11s

HONITON made Exmouth work for every point in this extremely heavy muddy match.

The home side Raptors played excellent technical and disciplined rugby, concentrating on getting all the basics right displaying an excellent team spirit.

Exmouth scored one try from an impressive pitch length breakaway run and another from a quick thinking interception.

Honiton responded to all attempts with excellent tackling from every single member of the team, getting very close to scoring several times, in particular having an attempt by Charles Corr held up. If commitment could be measured in mud, both sides were fully engaged in the game from head to foot.

Man-of-the-match was given to George Tomkins for extremely relentless determined play.

Honiton U12s 21 v Exmouth U12s 7
THE MUSKETEERS finally played their first game of 2013 on Sunday morning and continued their 2012 form with a hard fought win over a determined Exmouth side.

A first-half try from Jacob Wright saw Honiton lead at the break.

The second-half saw Honiton play some good running rugby under difficult conditions and defend resolutely when needed. A brace of tries from the ever-impressive Dan Phillips completed Honiton's scoring, with Exmouth replying with one of their own.

Useful debuts from Leon Ingham and Scott Barnett rounded off Honiton's day. Man of the match went to no.8 Luke Bralsford for his tireless work in broken play, with and without the ball.

OPG 42 Upplowman 16.

OPG took full advantage of the fact that their game against Upplowman was the only scheduled first division game - for a victory would take them to the top of the table on goal difference and end Upplowman's title hopes.

With Helen Wright playing well, OPG were 11-6 ahead at quarter time and then 21-11 in front at half way.

Although Andrea Britton worked hard for Upplowman they were outplayed and trailed 32-13 going into the final period before eventually going down 42-16.

The size of the defeat denied Upplowman a point and ended their outside chance of the tip spot, whilst OPG still have some hopes of the top spot finish.

WITH DAVE MUTTER.

IT was a tad soggy underfoot for the Four Trigs race a week ago. This 17-mile, very hilly and largely off-road route from Sidmouth visits the four trig points around the lower Otter Valley.

Tim Lenton retained his title, this year in Alex Todd's company with the pair getting round together in 2:28.14.

Patrick Devine-Wright was 7th in 2:44:44 while Garry Perratt added a two-mile detour to bag an extra trig, finishing 15th in 3:06:28.

Robin Carter was second lady, 23rd overall in 3:18:18, and Eleanor Wood, Roger Bramley and Graham Newton ran together.

Unfortunately, due to misreading the map, they managed to lose their way and ended up running adding an extra two miles onto the route finishing 49th in 3:54:59.

Sue and Jess Tubbs were second in the three-trig race in 3:52:36.

Adele Foxwell was delighted to gain a new PB of 1:41 in the Exeter Half-marathon and Lesley Adams was 159th in the Cannon Hill (Birmingham) Parkrun taking 27:55.

Caleb Sinclair was the winner on the Junior February handicap in 17:32, with Imogen Lewis 2nd, 17:02; William Blackledge 3rd, 14:18, Matt Thurgood 4th, 17:25 and Mia Bartlett 5th, 16:19.

Laura Bailey was the Senior handicap winner in 30:21 followed by Janet Woodward 2nd 33:09, Kate Alexander 3rd, 32:42; Anna McLoughlin 4th, 17:15 and Natalie Wakelin 5th 34:38.

Graham Newton took part in the 'Wild Night Run', 10 tough moorish miles across varying terrain, nearly all off road and with plenty of climbing.

Most people came prepared to deal with rocks, mud, moorland, bogs and even a little bit of tarmac. And the race certainly lived up to its 'Wild' billing.

However, Graham managed to keep on his feet to finish the run in 1:38:58, 17th place overall out of 130 runners, and 2nd in the over 50s category.

CULLOMPTON RANGERS 0 SEATON TOWN 5

Exeter & District under 11s Division 2

SEATON started well and played some nice football, but found the Cullompton goalkeeper in fine form.

Towards the end of the first-half Reece McCabe broke the deadlock to give the Greens a 1-0 lead at half-time.

Soon after the turnaround Seaton were awarded a penalty for handball which Edward Kenworthy smashed home.

The visitors then had most of the play and Alfie Bullmore, Kenworthy and Jamie Davey rounded off the victory. Man-of-the-Match was defender Ben Bush.

Tigers' await outcome of disciplinary hearing

AXMINSTER Town's stellar season has crumbled since the first team was involved in a mass brawl against Budleigh Salterton, resulting in the game being abandoned after 38 minutes and both clubs pleading guilty to misconduct charges.

The incident led to the resignation of manager Paul Ashford and several players leaving the Sector Lane club, including Ashford's sons Luke and Ben and Lewis Couch.

The Tigers were enjoyed their best ever season in the South West Peninsular League Division One (East), rising to the giddy heights of second place and were producing the form that warranted such an exalted position.

Experienced defender Darren Stewart, who enjoyed Western League experience with Bridport and Chard Town, was elevated from captain to acting manager until the end of the season, but Axminster's form has plummeted.

On Saturday they conceded four goals for the second week running, losing 4-0 to Appledore, a side they beat early in the season with ten men, and have slumped to sixth place with the chasing teams having games in hand.

Axminster don't have another league fixture until March 16th when they meet second placed Newton Abbot Spurs by which time they could have dropped further down the league.

The Tigers have also lost the services of Sector Lane stalwart Terry Emmett, one of Sector's top goalscorers over the years, to local rivals Millwey Rise, and there is also some doubt about the future of Emmett's brother Richie, one of the club's rising stars, who has sought a transfer to his home town club, Lyme Regis.

The disciplinary action taken against Axminster and Budleigh following their brawl in January was announced last week on the website of the South West Peninsular League.

A statement from league secretary Phil Hiscox said: "The matter has now been dealt with by Devon County FA. It is not for me to disclose all the details but suffice to say both clubs pleaded guilty to misconduct that led to the game being abandoned.

Both have been given identical punishments with three figure fines etc.

"The issue of individuals misconduct is a separate matter and they have obviously been dealt with taking into account the evidence and the previous record etc etc when determining punishments on individual players.

"The scoreline at the time of the abandonment cannot count as only 38 minutes of the match had been played, therefore it has been rescheduled for Wednesday 17th April, kick-off 7.30pm.

"No further comment will be made."

■ CHAMPS AGAIN: Millwey Rise pictured after they retained the Devon Intermediate cup (East section) by thrashing Otterton 9-2 at Harry's Field on Saturday, see details inside on page 61.
